

Proper Canopy Position

The canopy position on the stroller is very important for retaining the shape when closing. Do not place the canopy too high on the handles or the bone of the canopy can be damaged. See below canopy position.

The clip on the back of the canopy is placed between the two fasteners as seen above. The clips on the canopy can be fastened over the seat fabric.

Position of the canopy when viewing from the front of the stroller.